Instructions

This activity should take students approximately 30 minutes to complete.

After watching the video, teachers can use these questions to facilitate class discussion or provide students time to research and answer.

Reflect, research and answer

1. What does Reconciliation Week mean to you, and what do you think it means for Aboriginal Australians and Torres Strait Islanders?
2. Corrina addresses Country as Mother. How do you think this is related to the management of natural resources?
3. In your own words, what does it mean to be sustainable, and how is sustainability demonstrated by our first people?
4. What lessons can we take from our first people, and how can these lessons be applied to improve sustainability today?
